

Situation and possibilities of women researchers
in the European Research Area
GENDERA National Workshop

Budapest Business School,
Budapest, Markó u. 29-31.

October 25, 2011

Programme
9:00-9:30	Registration
9:30-10:00	Aims and activities of the GENDERA project; introduction of national good practices and actual national statistics in the area of Women and Science	TETALAP (Dr. Dóra Groó, Beáta Szoboszlai)
10:00-11:00	Roundtable discussion with governmental representatives on the local situation of Women and Science	Relevant Hungarian ministries
11:00-11:20	Coffee break
11:20-11:50	„Equal opportunities“ in science?	Dr. Mária Schadt
11:50-12:50	Introduction and discussion of the „Women and Science“ national action plan	Dr. Mária Palasik
12:50-14:00	Lunch
14:00-14:45	Introduction of the ADVANCE programme of the U.S.	Dr. Mary Ann Danowitz (USA)
14:45-15:15	Selection from the good practices collected by the PRAGES project	Dr. Marino di Nardo (Italy)
15:15-15:45	Introduction of a good example from Germany: „Science Goes Family“ - a programme for making science more family-friendly	Tanja Weisz University of Konstanz (Germany)
15:45-16:00	Questions and answers Conclusions	TETALAP